

Curriculum Vita for Richard Nadel

EDUCATION

Completed all but dissertation for Ph.D. in Mathematics, Northwestern University, 1974.
M.S. in Mathematics, Northwestern University, May, 1971. B.A. in Mathematics, State University of New York at Binghamton, May 1970.
(GPA: 3.52 undergraduate, 3.8 graduate)

EXPERIENCE

- a) Aug. 1984 – present. Math Instructor, Florida International University, Miami, FL
- b) Aug. 1982 – May 1984. Visiting Instructor of Mathematics, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida. Also, part-time instructor of mathematics at Tallahassee Community College.
- c) Aug. 1980 – June 1982. Instructor of Mathematics, Edison Community College, Ft. Myers, Florida.
- d) January 1976 – May 1980. Staff Instructor, U.S. Naval Nuclear Power School, Orlando, Florida.
- e) Aug. 1974 – May 1975. Visiting Lecturer of Mathematics., University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois.
- f) Sept. 1970 – May 1974. Teaching assistant, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

ACADEMIC AWARDS AND HONORS

1970 Graduated from State University of New York at Binghamton, NY, Magna Cum Laude
1970 – 1972 New York Regents Fellowship for Beginning Graduate Study
1970 – 1974 Mathematics Departmental Fellowship, Northwestern University
1966 – 1970 New York State Regents Scholarship

EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

I believe that all students should be allowed to reach their potential by being afforded quality instruction, supplemented, as necessary, by extra assistance in the office or by telephone. I let students call me at home.

I strive for excellence in all aspects of my job. This is coupled by genuine enthusiasm for what I'm teaching, whether it be college algebra or Calculus 2.

